

TORONTO COMMUNITY HOUSING CORPORATION
INSTRUCTIONS FOR GUARANTORS FOR MARKET APPLICANTS

Applicants who do not qualify for a market unit, may qualify by providing a guarantor. If the applicant is attempting to qualify by providing a guarantor, a complete guarantor form must accompany the applicant form. The application will be returned to the applicant as incomplete if the information noted below in bold is not provided on the guarantor form or the required documents are not provided.

Guarantors must be legal residents of Ontario and keep the Toronto Community Housing Corporation informed of their current address and phone number.

Please fill in all of the guarantor form, except for the address, the rent of the Toronto Community Housing Corporation unit and the notarization section at the end of the form. When the applicant accepts a unit with the Toronto Community Housing Corporation, the address and the rent will be filled in and the guarantor will be required to get the form notarized by a Commissioner of Oaths, a Notary Public, a Solicitor, or Justice of the Peace. The Notarized form must be provided at the same time as the last month's rent (LMR) deposit.

The guarantor must provide income verification along with the application. The income verification requirements are the same as those noted on the Application for Market Rent Accommodation.

The guarantor must provide verification along with the application. Housing costs are the rent or mortgage payments, plus taxes. Rent verification must indicate whether the utilities are included or not.

The guarantor's housing costs, plus the rent of the prospective Toronto Community Housing Corporation unit must be less than 35% of the guarantor's income.

The guarantor must indicate on the form whether they have sought independent legal advice.

If adults will be sharing a unit and a guarantor is required, each adult without a rental history of paying the full market rent will require a guarantor. Adults with a rental history must still have the same income as they had during the qualifying rental history period.

The Toronto Community Housing Corporation may do a rent check and/or credit check of the guarantor. If either is unsatisfactory, the Toronto Community Housing Corporation may not accept the guarantor.

The guarantee remains in force for the life of the tenancy or until revoked by mutual agreement of the guarantor, the tenant and the Toronto Community Housing Corporation.
